Field of Wildflowers, Douglas Edwards, oil, 30" x 40"

Grand Valley, Douglas Edwards, oil, 48" x 72"

Douglas Edwards frequently draws on the scenery of Greemore, Ontario for inspiration for his landscapes. Stylistically, he has evolved from the more conservative and realistic value studies of his earlier works to the present day pre-occupation with the more suggestive compositional form and colour palette of the Impressionistic School.
